

Farming pictures and stories

Looking north over Brompton from Bullamoor Lane
(Picture kindly contributed by Harry Cooke)

The Farming industry has for many years been an important part of Brompton's History and daily life. Unlike the Linen Industry which went into decline and is no longer, farming continues to thrive and is a major part of life in Brompton today.

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

Brompton & Great Smeaton Ploughing Competition 6th December 1951

SALE OF SIX FARMS

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

Good prices at an auction at Northallerton

Messrs Geo, Tarn Bainbridge and son auctioneers, conducted a successful sale of farms, small holdings accommodation land and houses at Northallerton.

Six lots were disposed of for a total of £6,900.

The copyhold farm "Church House farm" Appleton Wiske (of about 32 acres, rental £79 per year), was sold for £1,720 to Mr Trewhit;

a freehold small holding "Emerson House" Appleton Wiske (17 acres, rental £46) to Mr J W Haig, of Linthorpe, for £1,250;

the copyhold farm "Town End Farm" Brompton Northallerton (44 acres rental £80) to Mr George Corner, Cockerbury for £1,970.

"Pear Tree House" a copyhold small holding at Brompton (9 acres rental £34) was knocked down to the tenant, Mr Mark Wright for £750;

the freehold premises comprising dwelling -house, cottage and other buildings at Brompton village were sold for £610 to Mr Thomas Thwaites Brompton;

and Mr John Wroughton, Brompton, bought for £600 a freehold accommodation grass field of 4 acres at Brompton